HKU Faculty of Dentistry students hold oral care campaign on campus

The Dental Public Health Committee of the HKU Students Union’s Dental Society will join forces with the University Health Service to organise a dental and oral health care campaign on the main university campus from 8 to 12 March 2010.

An annual event, the week-long University Oral Health Exhibition aims at promoting good oral and dental hygiene habits among HKU’s staff, students, and visitors, as well as encouraging regular dental check-ups. On-site advice from dentists and oral hygienists will also be provided at the exhibition booth, and free souvenirs of oral hygiene products, donated by Oral B, will be given out.

The details of the University Oral Health Exhibition are as follows:

Date: 8 - 12 March 2010
Venue: HKU Main Campus: Run Run Shaw Podium
Topic: "True or False, Tooth or Not"
Time: 11:00 am to 5:00 pm

All are welcome.
