HKU Faculty of Dentistry Information Day 2010

30 October 2010

Dr Stanley ML Lai (Assistant Professor in Periodontology; pictured top) gave the Faculty's Annual Admission Talk to about 250 potential dental undergraduates on the annual HKU Information Day for Undergraduate Admission.

Three BDS V students (Mr Alex CH Cheung, Mr Oscar CK Lau, and Miss Ailsa HS Tam) also made presentations and answered questions from the audience. Before the talk, BDS student volunteers from all years conducted guided tours of the Simulation Laboratory, Polyclinic, and Problem-based Learning Suite for 1000 visitors, including potential applicants and their families.

"The HKU Information Day is a great opportunity for both BDS students and the public," said volunteer Tiffany CL Chan (BDS II). "We shared our enthusiasm with the public, while prospective students got to know more about the Bachelor of Dental Surgery degree, the HKU Faculty of Dentistry, and the Prince Philip Dental Hospital—all in one visit."
